TERM TWO – WEEK 8 MONDAY 19 JUNE 2017

Dear Parents, Friends and Whanau

Kia ora koutou. Our students consistently perform on the ‘big stage’ in many different ways. On Wednesday last week we had nine students that qualified and seven that competed in the Eastern Zone Cross Country event (Matt O’Meara, Hayden Pringle, Lucy McHutchon, Michael Lamb, Amy Brensell, Annabel Peters, and Madeleine Drummond). From here four of our students qualified for the Southland Cross Country to be held in Waimumu this Friday 23 June.

Congratulations to the following competitors who have qualified for the Southland event;

Eastern Cross Country Results

10 Yr Girls Annabel Peters 3rd Amy Brensell 6th
11 Yr Girls Lucy McHutchon 1st
11 Yr Boys Matt O’Meara 2nd

We also had a team of extraordinary rippa players who qualified for the Otago tournament recently. These players will be celebrating this achievement together at an activity we are arranging together.

Our biggest upcoming performances will certainly be at our school production; “Hoodwinked”. Please make sure that you get in and get your tickets this week. There is also a notice from Mrs Kinaston regarding costumes attached to this newsletter.

Miss Keenan and the Y0-3 children are going to meet with their Riversdale ‘buddies’ in Gore this Thursday. They are also going to do some ice-skating which will be very exciting.

Wig Wednesday is happening this week and Mrs Sarah Davies will be here to shave (half) of her head and so will I. If you are keen to shave your head for a bit of fun and maybe to raise money and awareness for the Child Cancer Foundation then please come along. The PTA is selling sausages and all of the proceeds will go to Child Cancer as well. Please dress your child in a wig and mufti and if you are able to bring a donation it would be much appreciated. Check out everydayhero.com (search DAVIES) if you are keen to donate and get Mrs Davies or I shaving our heads and Pete Davies shaving his fierce beard too!

I look forward to seeing you on Wednesday and we thank you for your ongoing support.

PRODUCTION COSTUMES

Dear Parents/Caregivers

As you are all aware, our school production; 'Hoodwinked' is coming around very fast. I am in the process of sorting out costumes for each child in the school. We have been lucky enough to get some costumes from the West Otago Theatrical Society and from our local Heriot Community Centre but I still require your help with some items.

Please get your child to bring the following item(s) to school, and give to ME in a NAMED bag, by Monday 26 June AT THE LATEST. There is going to be a lot of costumes to keep track of!

Animal onesie with zip (it doesn't matter which animal) – Hunter Sargent, Amelia & Katelyn, Taimani, Caitlyn Steel, Vanessa, Sasha

Black shorts: Kauri, William, Toby, Sebastian, Georgia, Charlotte, Chloe

Black top and pants: (NO signage, tights full & ¾ length are fine, long sleeved or t-shirt length tops are fine) Grace, Jimmy, Hana, Hunter Devery, Kenzie, Parehuia, Terena, Saxon, Anna, Isobelle, Sophie, Magdalynn, Michael, Ashton, Zarah-Beth, Addie, Annie, Adil, Aden, Alicia, Jamie, Hamish, Hayden, Molly, Adriana, Briar, Hazelle, Ruby, Brilee, Travis, Libby, Peyton-Rose, Cooper

Black Top: Matt

The Warehouse have plain black t-shirts and tights/pants from $4

Checked shirt and Jeans: Kaden, Tio

A notice will be going home next week in regards to what time your children need to be at the theatre in order to prepare for the 2 performances on Wednesday 5th and Thursday 6th. This will also inform you of make-up and hair that is required.

Please, if you have any questions at all regarding any part of the production please email me at school. Thank you for your support. I am sure you are all going to enjoy the performance and be very proud of your children as I am!

Kind Regards
